EXEMPTION FROM FEES FOR ELECTRONIC ACCESS TO COURT DATA	Administrative Order FLMB-2006-3

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER EXEMPTING THERESA J. PULLEY RADWAN, ASSOCIATE DEAN OF ACADEMICS AND ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR OF LAW FROM PAYMENT OF THE FEE FOR ELECTRONIC ACCESS TO COURT DATA

This matter came before the Court to consider waiving payment of the prescribed fee for electronic access to court data maintained on the PACER ("Public Access to Court Electronic Records") system. PACER is an electronic public access service that allows users to obtain case and docket information from the bankruptcy court and to view the pleadings directly. A fee is prescribed for electronic access to court data.

The Court may exempt individual researchers associated with educational institutions from the fee if the exemption is necessary in order to avoid unreasonable burdens and to promote public access to information. This Order is entered to exempt Theresa J. Pulley Radwan, Associate Dean of Academics and Associate Professor of Law at Stetson College of Law, from the payment of the fees, in order to promote important public access to information on bankruptcy filings. Waiver of the fee will allow her to complete a research project on bankruptcy and the elderly.

Accordingly, it is

ORDERED:

1. Theresa J. Pulley Radwan, Associate Dean of Academics and Associate Professor of Law at Stetson College of Law is exempted from the requirement to pay fees for electronic access to the court data in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida for a one-year period. The one-year period shall commence on March 1, 2006.

2. The information obtained via PACER may be used for their research and scholarly publications, but may not otherwise be sold for profit.

DONE AND ORDERED in Tampa, Florida, this 1st day of March, 2006.
