Re: Alter Ego Program

Dear Bankruptcy Practitioner:

I have had the pleasure of meeting many of the bankruptcy attorneys during the last year. This letter is a reminder that I have the privilege of serving as the "Alter Ego" at the request of the Bankruptcy Judges.

The basic premise of the program is that an attorney who never appears before the bankruptcy judges acts as the judges' alter ego. Attorneys can take any complaints, criticisms or constructive suggestions about our bankruptcy judges to the alter ego. The alter ego, in turn, assesses the communication and relays any comments directly to the judges, while preserving the confidentiality of the attorney. The alter ego is also available to mediate any issues between the respective parties. In light of the recent implementation of electronic filing, there may be substantive issues or concerns that you wish to address to better facilitate this process. Matters of a procedural nature will be directed to the Judicial Liaison Committee. The judges are most receptive to your feedback.

Please feel free to contact me directly at Jill S. Schwartz & Associates, 180 North Park Avenue, Suite 200, Winter Park, Florida 32789, telephone: 407-647-8911 or by email at jschwartz@schwartzlawfirm.net. As your alter ego, and on behalf of Judge Jennemann and Judge Briskman, we sincerely welcome your feedback. With best regards, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Jill S. Schwartz
