The OCBA is excited to hear from Consumer Debt Counselors at its January 25, 2019 luncheon regarding student loan repayment options. They will be able to give an overview of 2018 statistics regarding student loan repayment and current issues with borrowers' defenses to repayment on student loans related to the for-profit college industry.

Matt O'Brien, Esq., will speak at the OCBA's February 22, 2019 luncheon regarding increasing the growth of our bankruptcy practices through automation. Specifically, Mr. O'Brien will discuss using automation to convert leads to client, decrease inefficiency, and increase revenue.
