

2. Motions to Determine Post-petition Fees, Expenses, or Charges under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3002.1(e).

Rule 3002.1(e) provides that parties in interest in Chapter 13 cases, within one year of service of a notice of post-petition fees, expenses, or charges on a claim secured by a debtor's principal residence, may file a motion for determination of the asserted post-petition fees, expenses, or charges.

Please note the following procedures:

- Frequently, debtors' counsel file an objection to a Notice of Post-petition Fees, Expenses, or Charges, but the Rule provides for the filing of a motion. The correct CM/ECF docket event for a Motion to Determine Post-petition Fees, Expenses, or Charges is: Bankruptcy > Motions/Applications/Objections > Motion to Determine Mortgage Fees and Expenses.
- Notices of Post-petition Fees, Expenses, or Charges are filed on the Claims Register; they are docketed on the case docket, but are not assigned a docket number. To facilitate the Court's review of a Motion to Determine Mortgage Fees and Expense, the party filing a Motion must attach a copy of the Notice to the Motion.
