

Middle District Young Lawyers Invited to Eleventh Circuit Judicial Conference Program featuring United States Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas

Young lawyers who are members of the bar of the Middle District of Florida are invited to attend the Eleventh Circuit Judicial Conference Saturday program on Saturday, May 5, 2018, at the Marriott Sawgrass Hotel in Ponte Vedra Beach, Florida. Circuit, district, magistrate, and bankruptcy judges will be participating in judicial roundtables devoted to topics of interest to young lawyers and there will be a discussion with special guest, United States Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas! Breakfast will be provided and CLE credit will be awarded. The program begins at 8:00 a.m. and is expected to conclude by 11:30 a.m.

The cost to attend the Saturday morning program is $110 but the Bench Bar Fund of the Middle District of Florida is paying the fee for the first 45 young lawyers who apply. (Young lawyers are those with less than 5 years of practice experience or under 36 years of age.) The deadline to apply is April 13, 2018 (or sooner if filled). Applicants should complete the attached registration form and forward it to: 11thCirConf_YoungLawyers_RSVP@flmd.uscourts.gov. You will receive a confirmation email. Please contact Cecily Parker at cparker@esclaw.com if you have any questions about the Eleventh Circuit Judicial Conference.
