JSP 11/1 – 13/1*

Date: June 10, 2014

Announcement No. 14-05

Closing Date: August 29, 2014

Position Available: August 2015

Position Overview

The United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida is seeking applicants for a Term Law Clerk position; this position supports the Honorable Karen S. Jennemann, Chief Judge. Duties include researching a variety of legal issues, attending trials and other court proceedings, drafting opinions, screening motions, and preparing routine orders. The caseload in the jurisdiction is heavy. This position is a two-year term law clerk position.

Minimum Qualifications

Applicants must have graduated law school at the time of appointment; have a standing within the upper twenty-five percent of the law school class; and possess excellent research, writing, and proofreading skills. PC proficiency in Windows, MS Office, Excel, Westlaw, and LEXIS is required. Applicants must be admitted to practice law in at least one state or scheduled to take the Bar Exam. Applicants should have a substantive familiarity with bankruptcy law and a solid commercial law base. Experience on the editorial board of law review or moot court/and or publication of noteworthy articles is desired. The successful candidate should be responsible, possess excellent organizational, administrative and interpersonal skills, be a self-starter, maintain a professional demeanor at all times, be able to work harmoniously with others and communicate effectively both orally and in writing.

Application and Selection Procedures

Qualified applicants are invited to submit, on or before August 29, 2014, a cover letter, current resume, salary history, two letters of reference, law school transcript, and two writing samples that have not been edited by anyone other than the applicant. Applicants must apply electronically through OSCAR at www.oscar.uscourts.gov, (which allows applicants to upload resume, law school transcript, letters of reference, and writing samples).

Interviews will be scheduled after the close of the position announcement. All applications will be screened to identify the best qualified candidate; only qualified applicants will be considered. Applicants selected for interviews must pay all travel expenses and relocation expenses will not be provided.

The United States Bankruptcy Court is an equal opportunity employer.

Information for Applicants

- Starting salary is commensurate with prior experience as a law clerk to a federal judge.
- The Court reserves the right to modify the conditions of this job announcement, or to withdraw the announcement, any of which may occur without prior written or other notice. In the event that a position becomes vacant in a similar classification, within a reasonable time of the original announcement, the Judge may elect to select a candidate from the applicants who responded to the original announcement without posting the position.
- The final candidate will be required to undergo an FBI criminal background check. Appointment to this position is provisional, contingent upon a background check, and retention depends upon a favorable suitability determination after a background check has been concluded.
- All information provided by applicants is subject to verification. Applicants are advised that false statements or omissions of information on any application materials or the inability to meet employment conditions may be grounds for non-selection, withdrawal of an offer of employment or dismissal after being employed.
- All court employees are "at will" employees and, therefore, the appointee may be removed from this position at any time if, after reasonable on-the-job training, the appointee fails to perform at a satisfactory level.
- We will only make contact with those qualified applicants who will be invited for an interview.
- Applicants must be citizens of the United States of America or be eligible to work in the United States.
- This position is subject to mandatory electronic fund transfer participation for payment of net pay.
- No telephone calls, facsimiles, or e-mails please.
