

CHAPTER 13 PRESUMPTIVELY REASONABLE FEES

Under paragraph 9 of the Court's August 31, 2007 Order Establishing Presumptively Reasonable Debtor's Attorney Fee in Chapter 13 Cases, the presumptively reasonable fees established by the Court are subject to readjustment using the methodology set forth in Bankruptcy Code section 104(a). Under section 104(a), the dollar amounts in certain code sections are adjusted at three-year intervals starting on April 1, 1998, to reflect the change in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers for the three-year period ending the preceding December 31, rounded to the nearest $25.00. The adjusted fees below are effective April 1, 2016.

Presumptively Reasonable Base Fee	Current Amount	New (Adjusted Amount) for cases filed after 4/1/16
Plans for 36 months or less	$3,750	$3,875
Plans for 60 months	$4,100	$4,225
Plans between 36 and 60 months	The pro rata portion of $350 ($4,100-$3,750) based on the months in excess of 36 divided by 24, plus $3,750	The pro rata portion of $350 ($4,225-$3,875) based on the months in excess of 36 divided by 24, plus $3,875
A la Carte & Additional Fees	Current Amount	New (Adjusted Amount) for cases filed after 4/1/16
