

Rule 9036-1

[TO BE ABROGATED]

NOTICE BY ELECTRONIC TRANSMISSION; SERVICE BY FACSIMILE

(a) Service of any pleading or paper other than those required to be served in compliance with Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014 or 7004 may be made by transmitting it by facsimile or by other electronic means to the attorney's or party's office with a cover sheet containing the sender's name, firm, address, telephone number, facsimile number, email address, and the number of pages transmitted. When service is made by facsimile or other electronic means, a copy shall also be served by any other method permitted by Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7005 unless the party being served has consented to receive service by electronic transmission or facsimile. Service by facsimile after 5:00 p.m. (at the point of delivery) shall be deemed to have been made on the next business day. Service by facsimile constitutes a method of hand delivery for the purpose of computing the time within which any response is required.

(b) Three days shall be added when computing the time within which any response is required when service is effected by facsimile or by other electronic methods.
