Description

The Court permits and encourages submission of proposed orders simultaneously with the docketing of certain papers, with no requirement for hearing or waiting for the Court to request a proposed order.

The Court maintains an Accompanying Orders List that outlines the matters that may be submitted simultaneously with a proposed order. Movants should submit proposed orders for those matters listed at the top section of the Accompanying Orders List. The Court will prepare orders for those matters listed at the bottom section of the Accompanying Orders List.
