Description

Schedules are the official forms for listing a debtor's and co-debtor's assets, liabilities, exemptions, executory contracts, current income and expenditures, and parties jointly responsible for any of the debtor's liabilities. All the official forms and instructional information can be viewed here.

Amended schedules filed after the initial schedules must be served on affected parties. An Amended Schedule C and an Amended Chapter 13 Plan should be served on all creditors.

Filing Checklist

- Review the docket to determine if the case is dismissed or closed;
 - ❖ Note: The amendment will only be processed if the case is reinstated or reopened.
- Review the amendment to determine if:
 - The amendment is signed under penalty of perjury by the debtor;
 - The attorney's name and address are complete and consistent with the filing attorney's name and address in CM/ECF;
 - ❖ Note: if filed electronically by an attorney, must include electronic signature.
 - The amendment is properly served and includes a proper certificate of service;
 - If additional creditors were added to Schedules D, E, or F, the certificate of service indicates service of the Notice of Commencement of the Case (Section 341 notice);
 - The amendment adds additional creditors to Schedules D, E, or F, if yes, then ensure the additional creditors are uploaded/added to the matrix.
 - ❖ Note: Amendments to Schedules D, E, or F should only list additional or deleted information as amendment will be stricken if all creditors are listed.
 - Proof or certificate of service indicates service of the Chapter 13 plan, if case is a Chapter 13 case and additional creditors were added to Schedules D, E, or F;
 - Amended Summary of Schedules is included with amendment to Schedules A, B, D, E, F, I, and J; and

- After completing the docketing process in CM/ECF, ensure the filing fee is paid for Amendments to Schedules D, E, and F.
