Description

The Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Florida is a national leader in facilitating mediation to assist parties in agreeing to the consensual modification of residential mortgages.

Since February 1, 2013, the Clerk of Court has maintained a list of mediators in each Division of this Court who are certified to mediate modifications of residential mortgages involved in foreclosure actions (“Mortgage Mediator”).

To be certified by the Court as a Mortgage Mediator, the Mortgage Mediator must:

- A. Be a Florida Supreme Court Certified Circuit Court Mediator;
- B. Have completed at least eight hours of training approved by the Chief Bankruptcy Judge or his or her designee that focuses on modifying residential mortgages in bankruptcy proceedings;
- C. Agree to accept two mediation assignments per year without compensation; and
- D. Submit an application (form below) to the Clerk of Court together with appropriate proof of compliance with all three requirements listed above (A, B, and C).
