Description

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2042, a claimant entitled to any unclaimed funds held by the Court in its registry may petition the Court for the funds.

There are two ways funds are deposited into the Court's registry. First, when dividends (assets) are distributed by the trustee to creditors, 90 days after the final distribution of assets, any unclaimed dividends (checks that were not tendered) are sent to the Court for deposit into the Court's unpaid funds registry. Second, when a distribution check is returned to the trustee, the trustee files a report with the Court and submits a check for deposit into the Court's unclaimed funds registry. The report is accompanied by a check for the amount of the returned distribution. Chapter 13 Trustees file one report with a list of multiple cases with unclaimed funds.

A party claiming funds deposited in the Court Registry must file a motion. Motions often are filed by the original claimant(s). In some instances, the funds were deposited in the name of joint claimants, such as a husband and wife. The motion can be filed by one of the joint claimants requesting half the funds, representing their share of the monies on deposit.

Many claimants hire a funds locator who, with proof of employment by the claimant, may file the motion for payment of unclaimed funds. Any suspicious applications or indications of fraud will be turned over to the United States Attorney.

Filing Checklist
