Description

Local Rule 2002-4 provides that specified types of motions, objections, and other papers may be considered by the Court without an actual hearing if the negative notice procedure described in the rule is followed and if no party in interest objects to the relief requested.

The negative notice procedure eliminates the need for a hearing in most unopposed matters. This saves time and money for the parties, attorneys, and the Court. Even in the absence of an objection, the Court still may set a hearing to consider the requested relief. The Court has established a Negative Notice list (“Negative Notice List”), which is posted on the Court’s website. Other motions, objections, and matters not listed on the Negative Notice List may be considered by the Court using the negative notice procedure if permitted by the presiding judge.

Filing Checklist

1. Motions filed pursuant to the negative notice procedure shall:
 - Be served in the manner and on the parties as required by the applicable provisions of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, Local Rules, or court order;
 - Be filed with proof of such service in accordance with the provisions of Local Rule 9013-3;
 - Contain a negative notice legend prominently displayed on the face of the first page of the paper (see form below); and
 - Contain the correct negative notice language, including a valid address for one of the Court’s staffed divisional offices (the address must include the suite number).
2. For the purpose of completing the negative notice legend, the number of days during which parties may object shall be 21 days, unless otherwise stated in the Negative Notice List. For example, a Motion for Turnover requires a 30-day notice.

3. The negative notice legend shall be in the following form:

NOTICE OF OPPORTUNITY TO OBJECT AND REQUEST FOR HEARING

If you object to the relief requested in this paper you must file a response with the Clerk of Court at (address) [and, if the moving party is not represented by an attorney, mail a copy to the moving party at (address)] within (number) days from the date of the attached proof of service, plus an additional three days if this paper was served on any party by U.S. Mail.

If you file and serve a response within the time permitted, the Court will either notify you of a hearing date or the Court will consider the response and grant or deny the relief requested in this paper without a hearing. If you do not file a response within the time permitted, the Court will consider that you do not oppose the relief requested in the paper, and the Court may grant or deny the relief requested without further notice or hearing.

You should read these papers carefully and discuss them with your attorney if you have one. If the paper is an objection to your claim in this bankruptcy case, your claim may be reduced, modified, or eliminated if you do not timely file and serve a response.
