ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO SEAL RECORDS AND/OR REDACT DEBTOR'S PHYSICAL ADDRESS

THIS CASE came before the Court upon the Motion to Seal Records and/or Redact Debtor's Physical Address (the "Motion") (Doc. No. ____) filed by _____ ("Debtor"). In his/her Voluntary Petition (Doc. No. 1), Debtor listed his attorney's address as his primary address. Debtor's Schedule I reflects that he/she is employed as a _____. The Motion seeks permission to file a Notice of Change of Address either under seal or with permission to redact Debtor's home address pursuant to section 119.071(4)(d)2.a. of the Florida Statutes. After reviewing the pleadings and applicable law, it is

ORDERED:

1. The Motion (Doc. No. ____) is GRANTED.
2. Debtor is authorized to file an unredacted version of his/her Notice of Change of Address under seal.

3. The Clerk is directed to maintain the unredacted version of the Notice of Change of Address, when filed, under seal until further order of the Court.

4. Debtor shall also file a redacted version of the Notice of Change of Address.

5. Debtor is authorized to redact his/her home address from any future documents filed with the Court.

6. Debtor shall notify the Court of any changes to his/her home address and is authorized to file any updated notices of change of address under seal pending further order of the Court.
