Participants attending by Zoom pursuant to this Order must: (1) log on to the hearing no less than 15 minutes prior to when the hearing is scheduled to begin to permit Court staff to take appearances of record before the hearing begins; (2) have their lines muted when not speaking; and (3) dress and act appropriately during the hearing. Participants are reminded that although they may be appearing remotely, they are still attending a hearing in federal court.

Members of the public or press may attend any hearing in person. In accordance with the broadcast policy of the Judicial Conference of the United States, members of the public or press are also permitted remote audio access to any non-trial hearings that do not involve witness testimony, at the Court's discretion.
